Art Unit: 3641

1. Applicant's election without traverse of species A (fig. 1) in Paper No. 4 is acknowledged.

Claims 2, 4-5, and 13 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to non-elected species. Claims 1, 3, 6-8, 10, and 12 read on the elected species and an action on these claims follows.

2. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 12, it is not understood as to how the first and second wall portions can be considered to be angled at about ninety degrees relative to one another and still be obliquely angled as claimed.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 3, 6-8, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wootten.

Wootten discloses a cross cell sandwich core structure comprising:

- a) first and second face plates; 18, 19
- b) a plurality of spaced apart ribbons; see fig. 4
- c) a width extending between the first and second face plates; 13, 14

Art Unit: 3641

- d) length sections parallel to each other and longer than the width; 11, 12
- e) a first wall portion obliquely angled; and see figs. 5 and 2, #14
- f) a second wall portion obliquely angled. see figs. 5 and 2, #13

5. Claim 12 is too indefinite in its current form to make a determination regarding patentable subject matter.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Haselbauer, Bach, Gonidec et al., and Weisse disclose other state of the art composite core structures.
